

103D CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 174

To end certain cold war practices.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JANUARY 21 (legislative day, JANUARY 5), 1993

Mr. MOYNIHAN introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Select Committee on Intelligence

A BILL

To end certain cold war practices.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

5 SEC. 101. FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that:

6 (a) During the cold war the United States ex-
7 cluded from entry into the United States persons
8 with allegedly “unacceptable” opinions.

1 SEC. 102. REPEAL OF IDEOLOGICAL EXCLUSION AU-
2 THORITY.—Subsection (c) of United States Code, title 8,
3 section 1182 is amended to read as follows:

4 “(1) IN GENERAL.—An alien whose entry or
5 proposed activities in the United States the Sec-
6 retary of State has reasonable ground to believe
7 would have a serious adverse foreign policy con-
8 sequences for the United States is excludable.

9 “(2) EXCEPTION.—An alien shall not be exclud-
10 able or subject to restrictions or conditions on entry
11 into the United States under clause (1) because of 12 the alien’s past, current, or expected beliefs, state-
13 ments, or associations, if such beliefs, statements, or 14 associations would be lawful within the United 15 States.”.

16 SEC. 103. Nothing in this title requires the admission
17 of any alien believed to be a national security threat to 18 the United States.

19 TITLE II—PUBLICATION OF TOTAL
20 INTELLIGENCE EXPENDITURES

21 SEC. 201. FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that:

22 (1) Article I, section 9, clause 7 of the United 23 States Constitution states that “No Money shall be 24 drawn from the Treasury, but in Consequence of 25 Appropriations made by law; and a regular State-

1 ment and Account of the Receipts and Expenditures
2 of all public Money shall be published from time to 3 time”.

4 (2) During the cold war the United States did
5 not provide to the American people a “regular State-
6 ment and Account of the * * * Expenditures” for 7 intelligence activities.

8 (3) The failure to provide to the American peo-
9 ple a statement of the total amount of expenditures
10 on intelligence activities prevents them from partici-
11 pating in an informed, democratic decision concern-
12 ing the appropriate level for such expenditures.

13 SEC. 202. Section 1105(a) of title 31 of the United
14 States Code is amended to add at the end thereof:

15 “(27) a separate, unclassified statement of the 16 aggregate amount of budget outlays for the prior fis-
17 cal year for national and tactical intelligence activi-
18 ties. This figure shall include, without limitation,
19 outlays for activities carried out under the Depart-
20 ment of Defense budget to collect, analyze, produce,
21 disseminate or support the collection of intel-
22 ligence.”.
