

105TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. CON. RES. 8

Expressing the sense of the Congress that Federal retirement cost-of-living adjustments should be effective on the same date as other cost-of-living adjustments given to Federal retirement programs.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 13, 1997

Mr. ROBB submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Governmental Affairs

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Congress that Federal retirement cost-of-living adjustments should be effective on the same date as other cost-of-living adjustments given to Federal retirement programs.

Whereas over the years Federal retirees have been asked to share in efforts to reduce the deficit by delaying their annual cost-of-living adjustment while retirees under other Federal programs who also receive cost-of-living adjustments were not delayed; and

Whereas it would be inequitable to continue delaying cost-of-living adjustments for Federal retirees when like delays for similarly situated retirees under other systems are not under consideration: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives
2 concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that cost-
3 of-living adjustments for Federal retirees should be paid
4 at the same time as other retirees receiving Federal cost-
5 of-living adjustments.
