

107TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. RES. 18

Expressing sympathy for the victims of the devastating earthquake that struck El Salvador on January 13, 2001.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 6, 2001

Ms. LANDRIEU (for herself and Mr. DODD) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

FEBRUARY 7, 2001

Reported by Mr. HELMS, without amendment

FEBRUARY 8, 2001

Considered and agreed to

RESOLUTION

Expressing sympathy for the victims of the devastating earthquake that struck El Salvador on January 13, 2001.

Whereas, on the morning of January 13, 2001, a devastating and deadly earthquake of a magnitude of 7.6 on the Richter scale shook the entire nation of El Salvador, killing more than 700 people, injuring more than 3,000, and leaving more than 50,000 homeless;

Whereas the earthquake of January 13, 2001, has left thousands of buildings in ruin, caused deadly landslides, and destroyed highways and other infrastructure;

Whereas the strength, courage, and determination of the people of El Salvador has been displayed since the earthquake;

Whereas El Salvador is still recovering from years of civil war, hurricane damage, and flood damage;

Whereas the people of the United States and El Salvador share strong friendship and mutual interests and respect;

Whereas some United States specialists from Costa Rica and Miami, including specialists from the Miami-Dade Fire Rescue Department, were deployed to assist disaster relief efforts in El Salvador;

Whereas United States military personnel from the United States Southern Command are providing some technical assistance;

Whereas the USAID/Disaster Assistance Response Team (DART) has set up an office in El Salvador's National Emergency Committee (COEN) to assist the office in its coordination efforts and to ensure access to the latest information; and

Whereas the United Nations launched an appeal for humanitarian assistance and initial rehabilitation to address the devastation caused by the powerful earthquake: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the Senate—

2 (1) expresses its deepest sympathies to the people of El Salvador and other Central American countries for the tragic losses suffered as a result of the earthquake of January 13, 2001;

1 (2) expresses its support for the people of El
2 Salvador as they continue their efforts to rebuild
3 their cities and their lives;

4 (3) expresses support for disaster assistance
5 being provided by the United States Agency for
6 International Development and other relief agencies;

7 (4) recognizes the important role that is being
8 played by the United States and other countries in 9 providing assistance to alleviate the suffering of the 10 people of El Salvador; and

11 (5) encourages a continued commitment by the 12 United States and other countries to the long-term,
13 sustainable development of El Salvador.

○