

109TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. RES. 929

To congratulate Fort Collins, Colorado, on being named the best place to live in the United States for 2006.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JULY 19, 2006

Mrs. MUSGRAVE submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Government Reform

RESOLUTION

To congratulate Fort Collins, Colorado, on being named the best place to live in the United States for 2006.

Whereas Money magazine named Fort Collins the “Best Place to Live” in the United States for 2006;

Whereas the city of Fort Collins, Colorado, is an example of the best aspects of life in the United States;

Whereas the citizens of Fort Collins enjoy superior educational opportunities, including access to quality higher education in Colorado State University and Aims Community College and a strong public education system, including the number one ranked high school in the state, Ridgeview Classical School, a public charter school;

Whereas the Fort Collins strong job market is centered on the high technology businesses that help to drive a strong national economy;

Whereas the citizens of Fort Collins enjoy easy access to the beautiful natural resources of the mountain west, including Horsetooth Reservoir, the Cache la Poudre river valley, and the nearby Rocky Mountain National Park; and

Whereas the citizens of Fort Collins enjoy the safety and security of a very low crime rate: Now, therefore, be it

- 1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives con-
- 2 gratulates Fort Collins, Colorado, on being named the best
- 3 place to live in the United States for 2006.

○