

H. Res. 729

In the House of Representatives, U. S.,

October 29, 2009.

Whereas firefighters are often the first to respond to an emergency, whether the emergency is a fire, transportation accident, natural disaster, act of terrorism, medical emergency, or spill of hazardous materials;

Whereas firefighters tirelessly promote fire prevention and safety to protect our Nation;

Whereas people often do not recognize the important and dangerous work of firefighters;

Whereas the United States has more than 1,000,000 firefighters, 71 percent of whom are volunteer firefighters and approximately 15,000 of whom are female;

Whereas there are 1,600,000 fires, on average, in the United States each year;

Whereas approximately 30,000 fire departments operate within the United States;

Whereas a fire department responds to a fire in the United States every 20 seconds;

Whereas fire departments respond to nearly 2,000,000 calls in the United States each year without hesitation;

Whereas approximately 100 firefighters die in the United States each year in the line of duty;

Whereas 343 New York City Fire Department firefighters died in the line of duty at the World Trade Center on September 11, 2001;

Whereas an estimated 32,500 structure fires were intentionally set in the United States in 2007, resulting in 295 civilian deaths;

Whereas 103 on-duty firefighter fatalities occurred in 2008–2009 on the fire ground, 11 at other emergency calls, 39 while responding to or returning from alarms, 7 during training activities, and 17 during other on-duty activities;

Whereas approximately 3,600 people die in the United States each year as a result of fires, and over 19,000 are injured;

Whereas October 9 is the anniversary of the Great Chicago Fire of 1871, in which more than 300 people lost their lives;

Whereas President Harding declared the week of October 9 to be “Fire Prevention Week” in 1922;

Whereas the National Fallen Firefighters Memorial Service takes place each year at the National Fire Academy in Emmitsburg, Maryland, on the Sunday before Fire Prevention Week;

Whereas the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation sponsors the annual memorial service to pay tribute to firefighters who died in the line of duty during the previous year;

Whereas given its significance, the Sunday before Fire Prevention Week would be an ideal day to commemorate Federal, State, and local firefighters killed or disabled in the line of duty;

Whereas the Congress created the National Fallen Fire-fighters Foundation to honor America's fallen firefighters and their families; and

Whereas in 2001, President George W. Bush signed Public Law 107-051 requiring that the flag of the United States at all public buildings be flown at half staff in honor of the National Fallen Firefighters Memorial Service in Emmitsburg, Maryland: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

- (1) urges the President to designate a day as "National Firefighters Memorial Day" to commemorate Federal, State, and local firefighters killed or disabled in the line of duty; and
- (2) calls upon the people of the United States to observe such a day with appropriate ceremonies and respect.

Attest:

Clerk.
