JOINT RESOLUTION

To authorize the designation of the period of October 17 to October 24, 1959, as National Olympic Week.

Whereas the games of the XVII Olympiad will be held in Rome, Italy, August 25 to September 11, 1960, with winter games to be held at Squaw Valley, California, February 18 to February 28, 1960; and

Whereas these games will afford an opportunity of bringing together young men and women representing more than seventy nations, of many races, creeds, and stations in life and possessing various habits and customs, all bound by the universal appeal of friendly athletic competition, governed by rules of sportsmanship and dedicated to the principle that the important thing is for each and every participant to do his very best to win in a manner that will reflect credit upon himself or herself, and the country represented; and

Whereas the peoples of the world in these trying times require above all else occasions for friendship and understanding, and among the most telling things which influence people of other countries are the acts of individuals and not those of governments; and

Whereas experiences afforded by the Olympic games make a unique contribution to common understanding and mutual respect among all peoples; and

Whereas previous Olympic games have proved that competitors and spectators alike have been imbued with ideals of friendship, chivalry, and comradeship and impressed with the fact that accomplishment is reward in itself; and
