SECURITIES ISSUED BY BANK AS EXEMPT SECURITIES; REPORT FILED WITH SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

SEC. 11. (a) Any securities issued by the Bank (including any guarantee by the Bank, whether or not limited in scope) in connection with raising of funds for inclusion in the Bank's ordinary capital resources as defined in article 7 of the agreement and any securities guaranteed by the Bank as to both principal and interest to which the commitment in article 6, section 5, of the agreement is expressly applicable, shall be deemed to be exempted securities within the meaning of paragraph (a) (2) of section 3 of the Act of May 27, 1933, as amended (15 U.S.C. 77c), and paragraph (a) (12) of section 3 of the Act of June 6, 1934, as amended (15 U.S.C. 78c). The Bank shall file with the Securities and Exchange Commission such annual and other reports with regard to such securities as the Commission shall determine to be appropriate in view of the special character of the Bank and its operations and necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

48 Stat. 906, 882.

(b) The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting in consultation with such agency or officer as the President shall designate, is authorized to suspend the provisions of subsection (a) at any time as to any or all securities issued or guaranteed by the Bank during the period of such suspension. The Commission shall include in its annual reports to Congress such information as it shall deem advisable with regard to the operations and effect of this section and in connection therewith shall include any views submitted for such purpose by any association of dealers registered with the Commission.

AN ACT

For the relief of certain classes of civilian employees of naval installations erroneously in receipt of certain wages due to misinterpretation of certain personnel instructions.

March 17, 1966
[H. R. 2627]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That each civilian employee and each former civilian employee of any United States Navy installation is relieved of all liability to refund to the United States any and all amounts which were erroneously received by him without fault on his part after May 25, 1960, and before July 1, 1962, resulting from a premature within-grade advancement based upon a misinterpretation of cover sheet 852 of the Navy Civilian Personnel Instructions dated May 25, 1960. Any such employee or former employee who has at any time made repayment to the United States of an amount paid to him as a result of any such misinterpretation is hereby entitled to have refunded to him such amount so repaid if application therefor is made to the Secretary of the Navy within one year following the date of enactment of this Act. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for appropriate amounts for which liability is relieved by this Act. Appropriations available for the pay of civilian personnel of the Navy are hereby made available for payment of refunds under this Act.

Naval installations.
Relief of certain civilian employees.

SEC. 2. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
