Public Law 93-608

AN ACT

To discontinue or modify certain reporting requirements of law.

January 2, 1975
[H. R. 14718]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That certain provisions of law, which relate to the submission of reports to Congress or other Government authorities, are repealed as follows:

Reporting requirements of law, modifications and repeals.

REPORTS UNDER MORE THAN ONE AGENCY

(1) Section 3 of the Act entitled “An Act to authorize the expenditure of funds through grants for support of scientific research, and for other purposes”, approved September 6, 1958 (72 Stat. 1793; 42 U.S.C. 1893), is repealed, thereby eliminating the annual report under such Act to the appropriate committees of both Houses of Congress concerning grants for basic scientific research.

Repeal.

(2) Section 7 of the Act entitled “An Act to authorize the Secretary of the Interior to construct facilities to provide water for irrigation, municipal, domestic, military, and other uses from the Santa Margarita River, California, and for other purposes”, approved July 28, 1954 (68 Stat. 578), is repealed, thereby eliminating the report from time to time to the Congress, by the Attorney General, the Secretary of the Interior, and the Secretary of the Navy, concerning the conditions specified in section 1 of such Act involving facilities to provide water for irrigation and other uses from the Santa Margarita River, California.

Repeal.

REPORTS UNDER THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

(3) Subsection (b) of the first section of the Act entitled “An Act to provide basic authority for the performance of certain functions and activities of the Department of Commerce, and for other purposes”, approved October 26, 1949 (63 Stat. 908; 15 U.S.C. 1514(b)), is amended by striking out “: Provided” and all that follows thereafter to the end of such subsection and inserting in lieu thereof a semicolon, thereby eliminating the annual report to Congress showing total expenditures under such Act for food and other subsistence supplies for resale to employees of the Department of Commerce and other Federal agencies, and their dependents, in Alaska and other points outside of the continental United States, and the proceeds from such resales.

Annual reports to Congress, elimination.

(4) Chapter 256 of the Act entitled “An Act authorizing the Superintendent of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, subject to the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, to consider, ascertain, adjust, and determine claims for damage occasioned by acts for which said survey is responsible in certain cases”, approved June 5, 1920 (41 Stat. 1054; 33 U.S.C. 853), is amended by striking out “, and report the amounts so ascertained and determined to be due the claimants to Congress at each session thereof through the Treasury Department for payment as legal claims out of appropriations that may be made by Congress therefor.” and inserting in lieu thereof a period, thereby eliminating the annual report to Congress, through the Treasury Department, of claims not to exceed $500 settled under such Act, and the amounts so ascertained and determined to be due the claimants.

REPORTS UNDER THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

Reports to Congress, elimination.

(5) Section 8031(c) of title 10, United States Code, is amended by striking out the last sentence thereof, thereby eliminating the annual report to the Congress by the Secretary of the Air Force on the number of officers in the executive part of the Department of the Air Force and the justification therefor. *

(6) Section 3031(c) of title 10, United States Code, is amended by striking out the last sentence thereof, thereby eliminating the quarterly report by the Secretary of the Army to the Congress on the number of officers in the executive part of the Department of the Army, the number of commissioned officers on or with the Army General Staff and the justification therefor.

(7) Section 108 of the Mutual Security Appropriations Act, 1956 (69 Stat. 439), is amended by striking out "Provided," where it first appears, and all that follows thereafter down to and including "Provided further," where it first appears, and inserting in lieu thereof "Provided," and section 102 of the Mutual Security Appropriations Act, 1957 (70 Stat. 734), is repealed, thereby eliminating the quarterly reports by the Secretary of Defense to the Committees on Appropriations of the Senate and House of Representatives concerning items ordered, but yet to be delivered, against reserves of unobligated amounts of allocations for military assistance and those reports required not less often than each quarter containing a detailed breakdown, on a delivery or service-rendered basis, on all military assistance funds allocated and available to the Department of Defense as of the end of the preceding quarter.

Repeal.
Reports to Congressional committees, elimination.

REPORTS UNDER THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

Annual report to Congress, elimination.

(8) Section 16(c) of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act (81 Stat. 251; 29 U.S.C. 42a(c)), is amended by striking out paragraph (2) and by redesignating paragraphs (3) and (4) as paragraphs (2) and (3), respectively, thereby eliminating the annual report of the National Center for Deaf-Blind Youths and Adults, through the Secretary of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, to the Congress with comments and recommendations as the Secretary deems appropriate.

REPORTS UNDER THE DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

Repeal.
Reports to congressional committees, elimination.

(9) Section 5 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 (82 Stat. 477; 12 U.S.C. 1701c note) is repealed, thereby eliminating the annual report by the Secretary to the Committee on Banking and Currency of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs of the Senate, identifying specific areas of program administration and management which require improvement, describing actions taken and proposed for the purpose of making such improvements, and recommending such legislation as may be necessary to accomplish such improvements.

REPORTS UNDER THE DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

(10) Section 3 of the Act entitled "An Act to direct the Secretary of Interior to cooperate with the States of New York and New Jersey on a program to develop, preserve, and restore the resources of the Hudson River and its shores and to authorize certain necessary steps to be taken to protect those resources from adverse Federal actions until the States and Congress shall have had an opportunity to act on that program", approved September 26, 1966 (80 Stat. 848), is amended by striking out the second, third, and fourth sentences and inserting in lieu thereof "The Secretary of the Interior shall serve as the representative of the United States in such negotiations and shall consult with the heads of other Federal agencies concerned.", thereby eliminating the annual report by the Secretary to the President, and transmitted by the President to the Congress, relating to a program to develop, preserve, and restore the resources of the Hudson River, as required by such section.

Annual report to the President and Congress, elimination.

(11) The Act entitled "An Act to provide for the protection and preservation of the Antietam Battlefield in the State of Maryland", approved April 22, 1960 (74 Stat. 80; 16 U.S.C. 430oo), is amended by striking out the last sentence thereof, thereby eliminating the annual report to the Congress by the Secretary on acquisitions of land and interests in land, or agreements entered into with respect to land, necessary to preserve, protect, and improve Antietam Battlefield, Maryland.

(12) Section 3 of the Act entitled "An Act to provide for the establishment and operation of a research laboratory in the North Dakota lignite-consuming region for investigation of the mining, preparation, and utilization of lignite, for the development of new uses and markets, for improvement of health and safety in mining; and for a comprehensive study of the possibilities for increased utilization of the lignite resources of the region to aid in the solution of its economic problems and to make its natural and human resources of maximum usefulness in the reconversion period and time of peace", approved March 25, 1948 (62 Stat. 85; 30 U.S.C. 403), is repealed, thereby eliminating the annual report to the Congress by the Secretary, acting through the Bureau of Mines, on the activities of, expenditures by, and donations to, the research laboratory in the lignite-consuming region of North Dakota.

Repeal.

(13) Section 5 of the Act entitled "An Act to provide a program for the discovery of the mineral reserves of the United States, its territories, and possessions by encouraging exploration for minerals, and for other purposes", approved August 21, 1958 (72 Stat. 701; 79 Stat. 1312; 30 U.S.C. 645), is repealed, thereby eliminating the annual report to the Congress by the Secretary on the operations of programs to stimulate exploration for minerals within the United States, its territories and possessions together with his recommendations regarding the need for such programs.

Repeal.

(14) Section 19 of the Organic Act of Guam (64 Stat. 389; 82 Stat. 847; 48 U.S.C. 1423i) is amended in the last sentence thereof by striking out "Act, and by him to the Congress of the United States, which" and inserting in lieu thereof "Act. The Congress of the United States", thereby eliminating the reports to the Congress by the Secretary of all laws passed by the Legislature of Guam as reported to the Secretary by the Governor of Guam.

Reports to Congress, elimination.

(15) Section 24 of the Act entitled "An Act to provide for the partition and distribution of the assets of the Ute Indian Tribe of the Uintah and Ouray Reservation in Utah between the mixed-blood and full-blood members thereof; and for the termination of Federal supervision over the property of the mixed-blood members of said tribe; to provide a development program for the full-blood members of said tribe; and for other purposes", approved August 27, 1954 (68 Stat. 877; 25 U.S.C. 677w), is amended by striking out the last sentence thereof, thereby eliminating the annual progress report, through the Secretary, by the tribal business committee representing the full-blood group of the Ute Indian Tribe of the Uintah and Ouray Reservation in Utah, of its activities and the expenditures authorized under such Act.

Annual progress reports, elimination.

Repeal.

(16) Section 3 of the Act entitled "An Act to establish a revolving fund from which the Secretary of the Interior may make loans to finance the procurement of expert assistance by Indian tribes in cases before the Indian Claims Commission", approved November 4, 1963 (77 Stat. 301; 25 U.S.C. 70n-3), is repealed, thereby eliminating the report to the Committees on Interior and Insular Affairs of the Senate and House of Representatives, on every loan made under such Act.
